

DRONE ATTACK

Iraqi PM survives assassination bid

QASSIM ABDUL-ZAHRA
Baghdad, November 7

Iraqi PM Mustafa al-Kadhimi

IRAQ'S PRIME MINISTER Mustafa al-Kadhimi survived an assassination attempt with armed drones that targeted his residence early on Sunday. Officials said he was unharmed. The attack was a major escalation amid tensions sparked by the refusal of Iran-backed militias to accept last month's parliamentary election results.

Two Iraqi officials told The Associated Press that seven of al-Kadhimi's security guards were injured in the attack with two armed drones, which occurred in Baghdad's heavily fortified Green Zone area. They spoke on condition of anonymity because they were not authorized to give official statements.

"I am fine and among my people. Thank God," the prime minister tweeted shortly after the attack. He called for calm and restraint "for the sake of faces. The statement released by state-run media said security forces were "taking the necessary measures in connection with this failed attempt".

There was no immediate claim for the attack. It comes amid a stand-off between security forces and pro-Iran Shiite militias, whose supporters have been camped outside the Green Zone for nearly a month after they rejected the results of Iraq's parliamentary elections in which they lost around two-thirds of their seats.

"The assassination attempt is a dramatic escalation, crossing a line in unprecedented fashion that may have violent reverberations," wrote Ranj Alaladin, a non-resident fellow at the Brookings Institution, in a post on Twitter.

Protests turned deadly on Friday when the demonstrators tried to enter the Green Zone. Security forces used tear gas and live ammunition. — AP

China exports stay strong, trade surplus at $84 billion

ASSOCIATED PRESS
Beijing, November 7

CHINA'S EXPORTS REMAINED strong in October, a positive sign for an economy trying to weather power shortages and Covid-19 outbreaks.

The country's customs agency said on Sunday exports totalled $300.2 billion, up 27.1% from a year ago. That was down from a 28.1% increase in September, but still healthy.

Imports came in at $215.7 billion, a 20.6% rise.

Exports and imports are much higher than a year ago, when much of the world was in the throes of the pandemic, but there is widespread concern that economic headwinds are slowing growth.

The world's second-largest economy grew 4.9% in the three months ending in September, down from 7.9% in the previous quarter.

China's trade surplus in October was $84.5 billion, up from $66.8 billion the previous month, the customs agency said.
